EXCERPT FROM THE STATUTE OF THE AUGUSTO N. WIESE FOUNDATION

First.- By this instrument, I, Augusto N. Wiese, establish a foundation that shall bear my name and whose purpose shall be to promote individual and collective welfare by supporting the development of popular education, the promotion of higher culture, and scientific research, without neglecting to grant aid to religious entities, social hospital care, and charity organizations in general (...).

Fourth.- The Foundation, through its Administrative Manager, shall allocate all or part of the income from the assets it owns to natural or legal persons, secular or religious, regardless of their nature, with the objective of assisting them in their charitable, social assistance, religious, educational, scientific, cultural, or institutional purposes in general, provided that such persons or entities do not pursue any profit, but solely the goal of individual or collective advancement (...).

Twelfth.- (...) in accordance with the spirit governing this Foundation, the liquid funds obtained from the sale of the Foundation's assets shall necessarily be used for the benefit of persons or entities whose objectives are not profit-driven, but are essentially focused on assistance, charity, and human solidarity. (...).
